

AM Risk & Training (Pty) Ltd

P.O. BOX 13125 Northmead 1501

Cell: Helen: 073 653 1489 Marius: 081 278 4569 Ken: 074 910 4719

E-mail: helenb@amrisk-arff.com marius@amrisk-arff.com ken@amrisk-arff.com website: www.amrisk-arff.com

A SACAA APPROVED & ACCREDITED ATO IN TERMS OF PART 141 OF THE CAR'S

COURSE: BASIC AIRCRAFT INCIDENT AND ACCIDENT INVESTIGATION

TARGET GROUP : Basic Incident and accident investigation

OBJECTIVE: The training course provides information for investigation personnel and teams, who may respond to an aircraft accident or incident in order to investigate the causes. This manual will provide information needed by the investigating staff to effectively perform the various tasks and processes involved.

Course Duration: 5 Days

Basic Incident and accident investigation

Course Content

The following is the training curriculum for basic incident and accident investigation:

- Introduction
- Aircraft Property Damage accidents
- Sales or Additional income required to cover Loss
- Basic Causes
- Inadequate Safety Standards
- Inadequate Compliance with Standards
- US Army Loss Causation Model
- Multiple Sources, Causes and Controls
- The Concept of Multiple Causes
- Incident / Accident Investigation
- Steps in Investigation
- Get Prompt Reporting
- Initial Actions
- Gathering Information
- Analysing Incident / Accident Causes
- Taking Remedial Steps

HANDOUTS	: Manuals Provided
REFRESHMENTS	: Tea, Coffee provided at training centre.
ASSESSMENT	: Written Theoretical & Practical Assessment
CERTIFICATE	: Certificate of Competence
IN-COMPANY	: AMRisk & Training is more than willing to provide your training needs In-Company at your facility to assist with cost saving.
ACCREDITATION	: The course which is conducted in accordance with the Occupational Health and Safety Act 85 of 1993. Candidates who successfully pass the required examination will be awarded a Certificate of Competence.
AMRISK	: AM Risk is SACAA Approved & Accredited Aviation Training Organisation (ATO) in terms of the CARS'S PART 141
LGSETA	: AMRISK is also Local Government Training Authority (LGSeta) Approved & Accredited – Our Accreditation Number is: LGRS=1128-140205